As a leading DMC on the German market with office spots in Munich, Frankfurt, Dusseldorf, Hamburg and Berlin, we see an increase of requests coming in and are convinced about a positive and successful business development in the upcoming months, so we are looking for you as a perfect match to our team.

What Liberty Germany is all about:

For more than 30 years it has been our task and passion to offer our customers excellent service in event organization. Whether it's a large congress or a small meeting, an adventurous incentive trip or an active teambuilding event, an extraordinary product presentation or an unforgettable gala dinner – we support our customers as a full-service agency in the planning and implementation of their event and serve as a reliable contact person for your guests onsite.

Can you inspire our customers with your high-level performance?

What we expect from you:

- Education in tourism and long-standing experience as a senior project manager in the MICE industry.
- Communicative personality with team spirit and initiative.
- Excellent knowledge about the destination Germany.
- German and/or English fluent in spoken and written, other skills such as French, Italian, Spanish or any other language is highly appreciated.

What you can expect from us:

- A safe job.
- Teammates full of enthusiasm for their job with an extraordinary team spirit.
- Location flexibility.
- Challenging and varied job with a lot of personal flexibility and very good development opportunities.
- A strong company with a global network and financial stability.
